

Contact: Savi Van Sluytman, CEO
Lamoille County Mental Health Services
72 Harrel St.
Morrisville, VT 05661
(802) 888-5026

* * * * *

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LAMOILLE COUNTY MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES HONORS MORRISTOWN POLICE DEPARTMENT

Community Partner of the Year for 2014

Morrisville, VT – Lamoille County Mental Health Services awarded the Morrystown Police Department its first annual Community Partner of the Year Award for 2014. Savi Van Sluytman, CEO of LCMHS, presented the award to Morrystown Police Chief Richard Keith at its annual meeting on October 15, 2014. Ms. Van Sluytman thanked Chief Keith and the department for its help and support in providing services to LCMHS clients, particularly those in crisis, and for Chief Keith’s invaluable advocacy.

“Chief Keith and the members of the Morrystown Police Department consistently demonstrate sensitivity to the needs of our consumers and the agency itself, and we are grateful for their collaboration and support,” said Ms. Van Sluytman.

Lamoille County Mental Health Services is a community mental health agency serving children, families, adults, and individuals with developmental disabilities in Lamoille County.